

I use VRS more often now - it is much more convenient to use than other telecommunication services. It is also less-time consuming. However, there needs to be further improvement in the quality of interpreters and wait time for interpreters. Please adopt the appropriate rate and regulatory requirements to ensure the continued development of technology and multi-vendoring of VRS. Thank you.